Both the parties are ready to argue the matter today.

2. This appeal has been preferred against the consolidated order dated 20.04.2000 for the assessment year 1990-91, passed by the Income Tax Appellate Tribunal, (Bench 'E' New Delhi).

3. The learned counsel for the parties agree that only the questions of law arise in this appeal for the determination. They do not press the rest of the questions framed in the appeal: -

1. "Whether, the learned I.T.A.T. has erred in law in holding that the appellants have failed to satisfy the condition that 'the remuneration is not deductible in computing the profits of an enterprise chargeable to tax in that other State'?"

2. "Whether, the learned I.T.A.T. has erred in law in holding that the appellants are not governed by the provisions of the Agreement for Avoidance of Double Taxation (AADT)?"

4. The aforementioned questions were answered by the Division Bench of this Court {in which one of us (P.C. Verma,J.) was a member} in case of "Sedco Forex International Inc. Vs. The Commissioner of Income Tax and another", which was decided on 22.07.2005 in Income Tax Appeal No.165 of 2001. In the said judgment, the questions framed in the said appeal were answered in favour of the Revenue Department.

5. Following the above-mentioned judgment of a Division Bench of this Court, we dismiss this appeal.
